SIGHTSEEING

The clear, azure depths of lovely Lake Tahoe

GRAY LINE TOURS

Gray Line Scenic Tours, Inc.* had its beginnings in the gold and silver mining days of the Comstock Lode in Virginia City, operating originally as part of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, and then known as the Virginia and Truckee Transit Co. Joining the Gray Line Sightseeing Association in the early 1950's, it has since become a leader in the transportation industry, providing service above and beyond pure bus transportation.

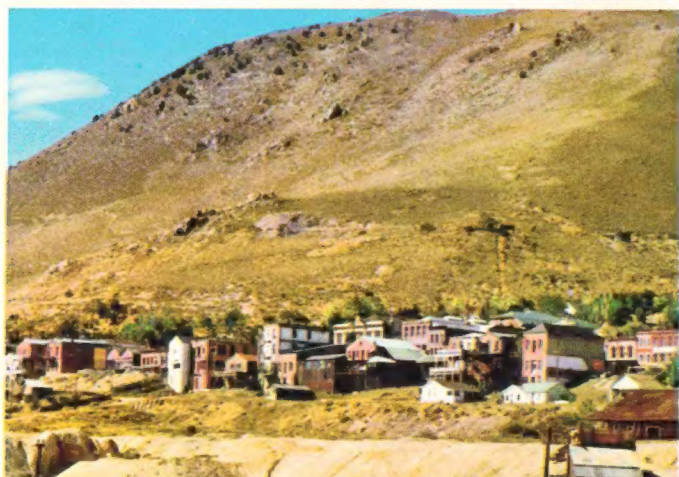

OTHER GRAY LINE SERVICES

A wide variety of special transportation services are offered, including private chauffeured limousines, airport and railway transfers, charter and shuttle service, tour escorts, interpreters, hostess service, beverage and snack bars, lunch and dinner tours, tram ride tours, nightlife tours, and Ponderosa Ranch cocktail and dinner party.

SPECIAL GROUP RATES

Group rates are available to 15 or more passengers...exclusive tour occupancy with 25 or more passengers. Write for complete information on custom designed convention, incentive plan, or other group tours.

"All aboard!" on the Virginia & Truckee — Virginia City on the Comstock Lode

TOUR T-1A—VIRGINIA CITY TOUR, V&T RAILROAD

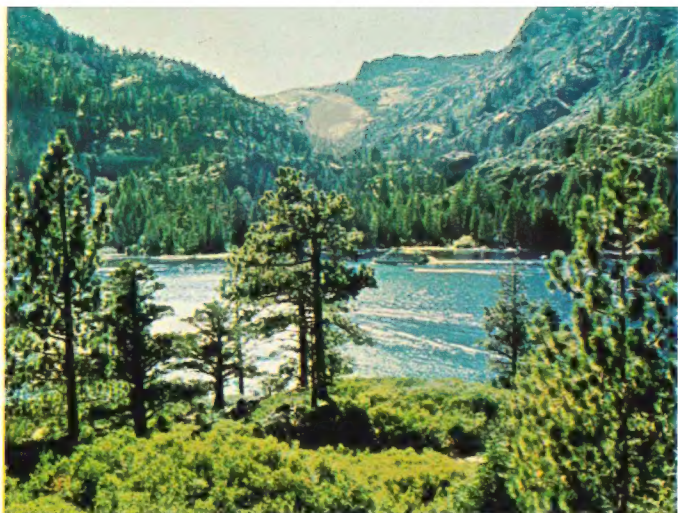

LAKE TAHOE DEPARTURE 12:30 P.M. Tuesday thru Saturday

Seasonal, June 1 to September 30 About 4½ hrs

Adult Fare $10.00 Child Fare $5.00 Approx. 60 miles

Our Gray Line Tour begins at South Lake Tahoe, proceeds along the emerald shores of Lake Tahoe. See Marla Bay, Zephyr Cove, Cave Rock, Glenbrook, and Shakespeare's Rock. On to Carson City, then to the "liveliest ghost town in the world," Virginia City, Nevada. Here you'll enjoy a leisurely visit in and around the haunts of Mark Twain, Dan DeQuille, John Mackay, Julie Bulette and many other colorful personalities that lived in fabulous Virginia City. Included in your tour is a ride on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad. The authentically restored steam locomotive blows her whistle and as she chugs along the track, a nostalgic feeling fills the air recalling the exciting days of the Old West. Your tour returns you direct to South Lake Tahoe for your afternoon and evening's entertainment.

NOTE: Included enroute is a brief city tour covering highlights of Carson City, the state capital of Nevada.

Tahoe's beautiful Emerald Bay — The "Bonanza" gang at the Ponderosa

TOUR T-3—"RIM OF THE LAKE" CIRCLE TOUR

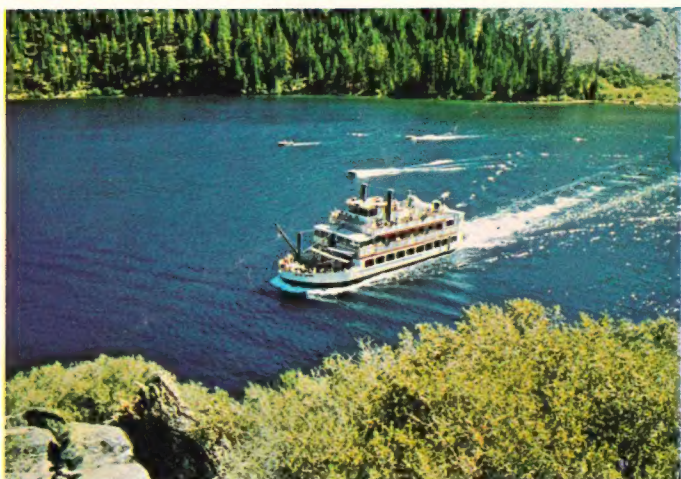

LAKE TAHOE DEPARTURE 1:00 P.M. Daily About 4 hrs

Seasonal, May 1 to October 31 Approx. 90 miles

Adult Fare $11.00 Child Fare $5.50

(Ponderosa Ranch admission included in tour price)

This tour originates at the Sahara Tahoe Resort Hotel. Courtesy pick-up of passengers will be made prior to departure upon request. Your Gray Line Tour motors along the "Rim of the Lake" to beautiful Emerald Bay, where we stop to witness vistas of color and scenery that form a truly magnificent display. Our tour continues around the Lake, passing through Meeks Bay to Tahoe City, where we stop long enough to see the dam and to feed fresh water fish of unbelievable size. Passing such points of interest as the Cal-Neva Lodge, once owned by Frank Sinatra, we continue on to Incline Village, where you visit the Ponderosa Ranch, legendary home of the Cartwrights of Bonanza television fame. Here a large slice of the picturesque Old West has been recreated. Our tour then proceeds around the east shore of the Lake to conclude at your point of origin, South Lake Tahoe.

November 1 to January 31—Thurs. and Sat. only

Adult Fare $10.00 Child Fare $5.00

A delightful tour to the "liveliest ghost town in the world," Virginia City, Nevada. We follow the historic Pony Express route to the heart of the fabulous Comstock Lode country. Here, along the quaint board sidewalks, you will thrill to the wonders of this old mining capital of the West. See the old museums, historic old buildings, Piper's Opera House, Sawdust Corner, the Bucket of Blood, the Suicide Table, and the ruins of a once roaring mining center in the heart of a gold and silver boom. Included in your tour is a ride you'll long remember on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad. The authentically restored old steam locomotive blows her whistle and as she chugs along the track, a nostalgic feeling fills the air recalling the colorful days of the Old West. Your tour returns directly to Reno over scenic Geiger Grade, giving you ample time to refresh yourself for an evening's entertainment in the "Biggest Little City in the World".
